General Loring-Interesting Note. Editors of the Dispatch: An article in your paper this morning suggests an inquiry as to the probable fate of General Loring and other Americans of General Loring and other Americans who are attached to the Kbedive's army.

Neither General Loring nor any other American was in the first expedition that went to Abyssinia in October, 1875. The second expedition, which left Egypt about the 1st of December, 1875, and "Mapowah" on the 10th of January, 1876, was recompanied by several officers from the who are attached to the Khedive's army. American was in the first expedition that went to Abyssinia in October, 1875. The second expedition, which left Egypt about the 1st of December, 1875, and "Mapo-wah" on the 10th of January, 1876, was accompanied by several officers from the United States. General Loring was second in command. A letter from him, now bein command. A letter from him, now before me, written at "Mapowa" on the 9th of June, 1876, and mailed, with an added postsoript, on the 4th of July, shows that at the latter date he was in Cairo. The following sentence gives information of several persons: "Colonel Graves, Dr. Johnson, and Colonel Lockett are with me here. Colonel Field is on one road and Colonel Derrick on another with parties."

Of the third expedition (date not given), resulting, so rumor says, disastrously to the Egyptians, I have no information.

United States Monetary Commission. NEW YORK, October 26 .- The United States Monetary Commission, authorized by concurrent resolution of Congress of August 15, 1876, is now organized as follows: Senator John P. Jones, of Nevada; Senator George S. Boutwell, of Massachusetts; Sentor Lewis V. Bogy, of Missouri; Representative R. L. Gibson, of Louisiana; Representative Richard P. Bland, of Missouri Representative George Willard, of Michigan; Hon. William S. Groesbeck, of Cincinnati, expert; Professor Francis P. Bowen, of Cambridge, expert; Hon. Alexander Delmar, of Philadelphia, statistician and corresponding secretary; George M. Weston, Esq., of Boston, recording secretary. The commission is now in session in this city taking evidence. A sub-committee will shortly start for the Pacific coast to take evidence there with regard to the production of the precious metals in California, Nevada, &c., and in reference to other matters entrusted by Congress to the commis-

THE VALLEY-STREAM MYSTERY SOLVED .-The mystery connected with the murder of little Maggie Bauer, near New York, has at last been cleared up. A man named Mc-Conochie, who was arrested some weeks ago on suspicion of being the perpetrator of the crime, on being taken from the Queens county jail to the scene of the murder on Wednesday, was overcome with terror, and made a full confession. He said that when the murder was committed, on August 14th, he was in a corn-field, when Maggie went to show Kate Hoffman the way through the woods to the Valley Stream depôt. He saw them both go by the field; he watched Maggie's return, and as she got opposite to him he sprang out and seized her by the throat to prevent her from making a noise, the poor child meanwhile cry-ing, "Ma! Ma!" After choking Maggie he carried her through the corn-field and attempted to violate her person. During mother of Maggie, who was present, sprang at the prisoner and grasped him by the throat, and would no doubt have choked him to death but for the interference of the officers. At Valley Stream depôt, when McConochie's confession had been noised about, a crowd gathered, and, procuring a rope, threatened to lynch the prisoner, which was only prevented by the determined resistance made by the officers have him in charge. He was finally returned in safety to his cell at Jamaica. McConochie is twenty-seven years old, and a native of this country.

THE WRONG MAN .- The man arrested in Edenton, N. C., on suspicion of being Joseph B. Hughes alias St. Leno the magician, who recently murdered Richard S. Hook at Solomon's Island, was at Chief-Debugger Tropfen and Sultzberger Tropfen, sold by foc 201 L. WAGNER, Druggist. Hook at Solomon's Island, was at Chief-Detective Crone's office in custody yesterday. Several parties who are acquainted with St Leno called and stated that the prisoner is not the right man, and he will be discharged from custody. The printed description of Standard Shurtleff's. St. Leno states that he has two broken fingers on his hand and a scar over the eye. The prisoner has both of these, but the scar is over a different eye from that of St. Leno and the broken fingers on the other hand. He is of the same height, and these similarities led to his arrest. He states that his name is Hudson, that he resides in Ohio, and that he was travelling through the South to make a living for his family when arrested .- Baltimore Gazette.
